Re: United States v. Jahquan Crump, 19 Cr. 785 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

I am counsel appointed under the Criminal Justice Act to represent defendant Jahquan Crump in the above referenced matter. I was reassigned to represent Mr. Crump on May 7, 2020. However, I was unable to obtain the discovery from prior counsel until quite recently. That discovery is voluminous, and I have not had adequate time to review it prior to the pretrial conference scheduled for September 9, 2020. I therefore respectfully request that the pretrial conference be adjourned for two months. I understand from Assistant United States Attorney Andrews that the government does not object to this request. I have no objection to an exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act for the period of the adjournment.

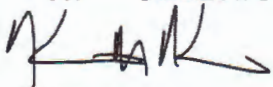

Granted. The conference is adjourned to 11/6/20 at 10:30 am. Time is excluded until then, in the interests of justice, to allow Mr. DeVita adequate time to review discovery. The interests of justice outweigh Defendant's and the public's interest in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. Section 3161(h)(7)(A).

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ James R. DeVita
